

Kyoko Bartley
March 7, 2022

Press Release;
NJ Artist Kyoko Bartley's
Latest Art Display
at Franklin Township Public Library,
Somerset, NJ

Kyoko is a local artist.
She exhibits her latest series "Endangered Species" artwork.

(Pictures: "Asian Elephant", "Giant Panda" and "Green Turtle" 2022. Color pencil on toned paper. 11x 14 inches.)

March 8th - May, her newest animal art "Endangered Species" will be displayed at Franklin Township Public Library (Main), Somerset County, New Jersey.

Although she has worked in a variety of mediums, these 15 pieces of art are done by color pencils on toned paper.

She is hoping this display with her work will raise awareness of animal environments and the possibilities for expression. Please share this topic on your media, and come and see her artwork in person!

About Kyoko

Kyoko Bartley lives in Somerset County, NJ. She is an award-winning artist who makes animal, plants and character design. She makes her animal art to the animal welfare awareness.

Detailed bio and artist statement are available at: <https://oekaki-princeton.com/>

Further events with her art;

Kyoko's art display in 2022 will be;

Small World Coffee on Witherspoon, Princeton, June 7- July 5.

Lawrence Township Library, September.

And expecting more in the Central Jersey community!

Contact;

Official HP: <https://kyokobartley.com/>

Art Website: <http://oekaki-princeton.com>

Kyoko Bartley
March 7, 2022

Twitter: <https://twitter.com/OekakiPrinceton>

Instagram: <https://www.instagram.com/oekakiprinceton/>

Email: kyoko@oekaki-princeton.com